

Grand Traverse Bay

Gwyn Besner

CHORUS

Em D Em

The sun warmed the sky as the moon bid good - bye to the

Em A B<sup>7</sup>

East Arm of Grand Trav - erse Bay - - - As

Em Am

hard as I'd try, no mon - ey could buy the peace that I found on that day - -

Em D Em

VERSES

2

Em D Em

A life - time of search - ing and seek - ing a home an - y
The birds filled the sky with a chor - us com - plete as I

Em D Em

port in the storm would suff - ice - - - I paused to take in the per - fume - - - Of

Em D Em G

knew when I found it no more would I roam. That li - lacks and red - bud and flow - ers so sweet. It com - morn - ing was meant to en - tice - - - The plete - ly de - stroyed an - y gloom - - -

Em D Em

G C G

plan was a bike ride to clear up my head, a Naught could com - pare to that won - drous May air, as I

G D

bridge from the night to the day - - - At first glimpsed this place so sub - lime - - - The top of the hill the east - ern sky red, and the deer and the turkeys and birds will all share thi - is

G G7 C G

D B7 Em

moon o - ver Grand Tra - verse Bay - - - home that feels carved out of time - - -